

Particulars of a Duel

It is here-by agreed by the Seconds of both Parties that this matter will be settled by a Duel:

- * untill the Offended Party is satisfied
- * untill First Blood drawn
- * to the Death¹

using:

- * Swords

within an arena of _____ Paces across

- * Firearms

at a distance of _____ Paces²

- * firing alternately, with the Offending Party firing first
- * firing alternately, with the Challenged Party firing first
- * with both Parties firing simultaneously
- * for a total of _____ Shots
- * until Ammunition is exhausted

In addition, the following special conditions will pertain:

Notes

1. NB that the Deceased may take no further part in Duelling.
2. Two (2) paces if Short Range; Five (5) paces if Long Range.