

Fingerstache!

the game

Challenge:

Put up your fingerstache and be ready to face off against another moustacheer!

If another moustacheer presents you with their fingerstache, a challenge has been issued.

You must present your own 'stache and face-off for facial hair.

You may not challenge or be challenged by the same moustacheer twice in a row.

Face Off:

Standard Rock-Paper-Scissors rules:
Best out of 3 wins.

The loser adds a pair of marks to the winner's moustache.
(keep your marker handy!)

The moustacheer at left has won 3 face-offs.

Victory:

Biggest fingerstache at the end of the night wins!

Keep an eye out for roving photographers, and be ready to present your 'stache for photos.

The Rogue Barber:

Someone is secretly the Barber!
If you lose to the Barber, you lose your entire moustache.

If you beat the Barber, you become the Barber.

Don't reveal that you're the Barber until after a "customer" challenges you!

The Snake Oil Salesman:

Dare to face the amazing Professor Soupcatcher!
If you can best this purveyor of fine hair products, you earn 3 pairs of moustache marks.

If you lose to the Snake Oil Salesman, you lose half of your moustache.
